FROM FORTRESS MONROE.

SEVERE STORM OFF THE CAES.

PART OF THE BURNSIDE EXPEDITION DE TAINS BY THE STORM.

HEAVY FIRING HEARD IN THE DIRECTION OF YORKTOWN.

THE TROOPS PAID OF.

Baltimore, Jan. 15.—The Old Point boat arrived here this evening about seven o'clock. She did not leave Fortress Monroe until seven o'clock this morning, owing to the storm. The following letter has been received, dated Fortress Monroe, January 14:

Between one and two thousand troops of the Burnside expedition, including the d'Espinoza, Zouaves, are still in the Roads, detained by the weather.

A severe storm, with snow, commenced last night, and a high wind has been blowing all day. The snow was three inches deep this morning.

Persons at Camp Hamilton say that very heavy firing was heard yesterday morning in the direction of Yorktown, supposed to have been from practising.

Dispatches have been received here, addressed to Brigadier General Hatch, and others of his staff, and it is supposed that his brigade has been ordered to this point.

The payment of the troops of this department has commenced. The Tenth New York regiment received their money to day.

Latest from Cairo.

Oniro, Jan. 14.—The gunboats Essex, St. Louis, and Tyler made a reconnaissance down river to-day. They approached within a mile and a half of Columbus, and fired several shots at a rebel camp. The rebels returned the fire from three or four guns, without doing any damage to our boats. The effect of our shells is unknown.

There were no obstructions in the river, and no masked batteries on the shore were discovered as heretofore.

It is reported that Gen. McClemand a column moved in the direction of Blandville, Ky., today. Gen. Palmer's moved forward this morning from Bird's Point.

dispatch in the Chicago Tribune, from Cairo, gives the following additional particulars:

Our movements down the river have prevented the departure of 30,000 reinforcements for Bowling Green.

Hollins' battering ram lies just below Island No. 1.

Capt. Porter, commanding the Essex, enclosed in a bottle, begged us to buy the following dialogue: "Come out, you cowardly rebels, and show your sabre!"

Gen. Grant, with the balance of the expedition, will wait reinforcements from St. Louis, which have been delayed in consequence of fog, and the channel of the Mississippi being blockaded by the steamer Arizona being aground, for which reason the St. Louis force did not leave.

Mayfield Creek is still occupied by McClemand's brigade.

Capt. Stewart's cavalry made a reconnaissance beyond Blandville, within six miles of Columbus to-day, without discovering the enemy.

THE WAR IN MISSOURI.

Sedalia, Jan. 14.—Advices have been received that the First Kansas regiment, which was sent from here some days since, arrived at Lexington last Friday, and arrested a man who had been captured, from persons acquainted with the facts, to have been a spy for the rebels, with his gentlemanly appearance, as exhibited both in conduct and manner, of frequent occurrence, that he feels that he cannot, in justice to himself, suffer the present accusation to pass without paying this slight tribute to his memory.

Those who have been longer associated with Mr. Edman, in the Treasury Department, feel that they have lost their best friend. He was ever vigilant and watchful of the interests of the country, and has been a simple, upright man, with his gentlemanly manners, as exhibited in his constant office interviews of frequent occurrence, that he feels that he cannot, in justice to himself, suffer the present accusation to pass without paying this slight tribute to his memory.

For sometime past he has been aware that his labors were wearing upon him, and during the fall absented himself from his post two or three weeks, resting his body, however, since, it is said, from necessity for the Assistant Secretary to seek some rest from the arduous duties of his office, in order to maintain his health, and Mr. Edman relieved him by performing the routine duties of his office, although many of his friends feared his physical powers would prove unequal to the task.

No sooner had Mr. Harrington returned, however, than Mr. Edman succeeded to what power to have failed him, and the result of the lung, which terminated his life in about thirty-six hours. His funeral services, Rev. Mr. Hall, of Epiphany, of which church Mr. Edman was a member and vestryman, officiating, were attended by Secretary Chase at twelve o'clock to-day, accompanied by the heads of the several bureaus and the employes generally.

His remains were sent by railway to Philadelphia, where his friends reside.

The Opera—Don Pasquale.

The great company of Italian opera artists, who have been recently so successful in our city, and are this week performing in crowded houses in the New York Academy of Music, will give three more operatic performances, commencing on Monday next, when Donizetti's popular opera—Don Pasquale, will be performed for the first time in Washington. Hinckley will appear in her famous role of Norma. Sig. Brignoli as Ernesto, Sig. Mancuso as Malatesta, and Sig. Susini in his renowned character of Don Pasquale. This opera has been performed in New York, Boston, and Philadelphia with the same cast with unequalled success, and we anticipate all will go well. For all the particulars, see our advertising column, or a short article published shortly the entire plot of the opera—Don Pasquale. The sale of reserved seats will commence on Saturday morning at Mezzett's.

The Hutchings will give one of their popular entertainments at the rooms of the Young Men's Christian Association to night. Arrangements have been concluded by which they are permitted to sing in the army of the Potowmack, and will consequently be absent from the city for a few days.

Christy's—"The Slave Lover" is drawing like a six horse team.

CANTERBURY.—Pantomime, Ward's triumph of the corde volante, singing and dancing, rule the hour.

UNION MUSIC HALL opened last night for the first time, with a crowded house. The performances were excellent.

EXPLOSION OF A BOMB-SHELL.

Levi Short and Lyman B. Smith, proprietors of the Greek Fire Bomb-shells, will explode a specimen this evening at 8 o'clock, between the President's House and the Potowmack. Ladies and gentlemen can have a safe view from the park on the south front of the President's House. It produces a hole 10 feet in diameter, unextinguishable by water.

OBITUARY NOTICE.

REGISTER DEPARTMENT, Register's Office, Jan. 15, 1862.

The occupants of the Treasury were startled and appalled this morning by the announcement of the death of their late Chief Clerk.

Gilbert Rodman died this morning at 4 o'clock.

For upwards of thirty years he has fulfilled the duties of various positions in the Department, with the most scrupulous fidelity. The head of the bureau, from personal acquaintance of a score of years, has been a simple, upright man, with his gentlemanly manners, as exhibited both in conduct and manner, of frequent occurrence, that he feels that he cannot, in justice to himself, suffer the present accusation to pass without paying this slight tribute to his memory.
